

For Release:
May 25, 2006

Contact: 785-296-0901
Communications@dol.ks.gov

Labor Economist joins Labor Department

TOPEKA — Inayat Noormohmad has joined the Kansas Department of Labor as a labor economist in the Labor Market Information Statistics division. He is responsible for research, analysis and interpretation of labor market and economic data that assists in policy decisions, business incentives and economic development across the state of Kansas.

Noormohmad recently worked in Atlanta, GA. He has worked in engineering, hedge funds and business development and management.

A native of Mumbai, India, he attended high school in Atlanta and is a graduate of Georgia Tech, with a bachelor's degree in aerospace engineering. He received an master's degree in public financial policy from the London School of Economics in London, UK.

Noormohmad and his wife, Rozina, live in Topeka.

###