Kansas Department of Labor Virtual Town Hall

On Wednesday, April 8, Secretary Delía García and Unemployment Insurance Deputy Director/Chief of Appeals Shawn Yancy will host a virtual town hall on Facebook Live at 3 p.m. The purpose of the event is to educate the public and provide a broad, high-level overview of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act, (also known as the CARES ACT) and the Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) on the programs. KDOL received federal guidance on Sunday night, and the programs are not currently operational. García and Yancy will accept questions from viewers and request media utilize their official accounts and identify themselves in the comments.
