Laura Kelly, Governor

Dear Wage Claimant:

Thank you for contacting the Kansas Department of Labor for help regarding your unpaid wages. Kansas law provides a procedure for our Office of Employment Standards to help you collect your unpaid wages. This letter outlines the steps you must take to collect your unpaid wages.

1. If you have not been paid all of your earned wages, please complete the enclosed Claim for Wages form and mail it to the Kansas Department of Labor, Employment Standards, 401 SW Topeka Blvd., Topeka, KS 66603-3182. A labor conciliator will review your claim and contact you to ask more questions if necessary.
2. When your Claim for Wages form is complete, your labor conciliator will forward a copy of your claim to the employer, requesting that they provide a response within 14 days.
3. If payment is not made by your employer, the Employment Standards office will conduct an investigation pursuant to the Kansas Wage Payment Law (K.S.A. 44-313 et seq.).
4. If your claim cannot be settled through the investigative process, a hearing will be scheduled before a presiding officer and a Notice of Hearing will be mailed to you and your employer.
5. If there is a hearing, the presiding officer will decide whether the employer owes the wages and any applicable penalty and interest. If the decision is in your favor, the presiding officer will order the employer to pay your wages.
6. If the employer does not pay as ordered, you may request the Kansas Department of Labor legal staff to enforce the presiding officer's order in court. If you prefer, your private attorney may file the court action at your expense.

The more information you can provide on the claim form, the quicker we can resolve your claim. However, if you don't know all of the answers and can't get the information or the document requested, complete as much information as possible and submit the form.

If you have any questions about this process, contact Employment Standards at 785-296-5000, x1068.
