Labor Updates February 17, 2021

News

- KDOL sent out a FAQ on Monday, 02/15/21 to media, and posted it on Facebook explaining the agency’s position on many subjects affecting claimants. Click here for more information
- On Friday, 02/12/21, KDOL announced the agency would begin paying PEUC the week ending 02/19/21. For more information, click here

Legislative

- KDOL testified as Neutral on HB2196 in House Commerce, Labor & Economic Development on 02/10/21. The Chairman will begin working HB2196 on 02/18/21 with any amendments. He is going to give KDOL until 02/23/21 before taking action to ensure the bill is how we want it to be and will work to compromise. Rep. Johnson will be key on the piece for replenishing the trust fund
- KDOL is testifying 02/18/21 in Senate Commerce on SB177 as neutral. It is the same bill as HB2196. We will have additional staff available to help with questions. Senate Commerce really tried to lay the blame on Gov Kelly for Labor’s issues. They neglected to mention that it was Brownback’s administration under Karen Brownlee that abruptly ending modernization in 2011 and fired 85 labor employees, decimating the agency. See a story about this here
- House Appropriations approved KDOL’s budget on 02/17/21
- Senate Ways and Means starts reviewing our budget tomorrow, 02/18/21
